

GREETINGS FROM MUTUAL MINISTRY:

We would like all of our readers, and all of our members, to know Zion's Mutual Ministry Committee, and we hope that all who read this will gain a better understanding of how we serve our church and its leaders. So let's begin by keeping you, the reader, in mind. We'll begin with a simple question. How do you learn or remember something? Some persons like the KISS approach (Keep it Simple S...). Or, maybe you prefer keeping it in terms of business acumen? Perhaps you are a dyed-in-the wool Lutheran with all of our cerebral ways. The Pastor would surely love that!

Well, here's a response with a little bit of all these approaches rolled into one. We are a group that totals 12 ears and 6 mouths. With that 2:1 ratio we do our best to practice the skill of listening rather than talking. That's a good ratio and a healthy mixture of listening to talking, which helps us do our work. Part of our work is to listen to your concerns. That's our way of trying to keep our church healthy. We try to listen to your concerns, connect them with persons who might be responsible, follow-up with a "gut check" to see if concerns are resolved and new ideas are processed. We usually meet six times during the year as we take the pulse of the congregation and work our way through regular business and administrative topics.

By now, you are wondering just who these persons are that make up our Mutual Ministry Committee. Enter stage right, the business approach. We are comprised of church leaders and members. In some ways, we are like a "human resources" department in the business world. We employ tools to help us stay the "strategic course" of our long-term vision, which in our case is to grow in love and service by grace. One of our first tasks was to align ourselves with that vision. So we assembled our committee members – yours truly, Brian Milek, the chairman, Pastor Sherwindt, Lorin Beaber, Nick Lanzalotta, Carol Rossbach, and Lorraine Weinman – and we drafted our mission statement: Mutual Ministry's mission is to foster the spiritual development of our leaders and staff. We do this by listening, sharing, and planning the means to advance the overall mission of our congregation.

We are committed to doing what we can in contributing to a vibrant, loving, and growing community of faith, which enhances the life of our congregation and our service to the world. Our membership covenant provides some great guidance, and our Lutheran heritage challenges us to think about concrete ways for fulfilling our responsibilities. God has given divine treasures to "earthen vessels". As vessels, there are times when we overflow with joy, other times when we convey God's word of comfort and love, and still other times when we are empty (or drained) of spiritual strength. As members of Mutual Ministry, it is our privilege to do our best to monitor and assist when your spiritual vessel may be near empty, so that our life together will again overflow with joy. Of course, we, too, are "earthen vessels" and ask you to help us when needed; and never hesitate to tell us, when you're nearing "empty" and could use a "refill".

We appreciate the opportunity to serve,
Brian Milek, Mutual Ministry Convenor
Vice-President of Zion's Church Council

CHURCH COUNCIL NEWS

Lorin Beaber called our February meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. Dave Palumbo offered devotions. Our attendance included Juanita Cignetti, Brian Milek, Beth Shaheen, Dale Jacobs, Vicki Givler, Todd Elsass, Cathy Harvey, Renee Keith and Pastor Sherwindt. We were focused on looking ahead to Lent, and busy celebrating some good financial results, concluding our meeting at 8:15 p.m.

Our Treasurer's Report confirmed the success of our Early Bird Giving Plan. We were less ambitious with our goals this year because we ended 2012 on such a strong note. Council's portion of Early Bird Giving arrived in January, with the congregation's share expected in February. The liturgical calendar promises to help with first quarter giving, since March is a 5-Sunday month, which includes Holy Week and Easter.

ZION'S FINANCIAL FACTS: JANUARY

Income for January	$15,622.79
Expenses in January	$15,448.63
January's Budget Surplus	$ 174.16
The Food Pantry Fund	$ 4,027.55
Youth of Zion Fund	$ 3,536.60
Zion's Internship Fund	$ 7,685.33

January made it yet another consecutive surplus month; but we'll be happy to call it month #1, as we start another year in the black. We were helped with Council's portion of Early Bird Giving, with the larger portion of the congregation's Early Bird Giving coming in February. We are very happy to credit Early Bird Giving with our ability to stay ahead of higher winter-related expenses this year and last.

We thank you for your generous support!

MORE COUNCIL NEWS

Property Ministry: January and February are months to monitor utility bills and snow-plowing expenses, which thus far have tracked last year's lower levels. Earlier in February, our custodian experienced some health issues that required time to recover. Tim's back, and we thank God for that; but Bob Lancashire filled in during Tim's absence, and did a great job. We are also happy to see that our temporary ramp into the Narthex continues to hold up with the snow and salt that arrived with winter.

Worship Ministry: The Lenten calendar is complete, awaiting only congregational support for the services we will offer. Hosts for our dinners will be the Church Council, the Senior Choir, the Chancel Guild, the Men of Zion, and the Youth of Zion (with youth leaders). Our Lenten devotions will feature the Senior Choir as worship leaders on February 17 and 24, the Praise Team as worship leaders on March 3, with a Service of Special Music and Lenten Readings on March 10, and the Youth of Zion reading Luke's Passion Narrative on March 17. The Sunday School Easter Play is set for the 10:30 a.m. service on Palm Sunday, which is March 24th, with two services on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, and Easter on March 31st, with Zion's Annual Easter Egg Hunt between the services at 9:15 a.m.

Resource Ministry: Our Early Bird Giving continues to make a difference. Members of the Council put together a Challenge Bucket of $3,000.00, and the Congregation joined in with contributions, which exceeded that amount! Zion's willingness to be generous in their support of the life of the church is both humbling and gratifying. We extend our heartfelt thanks to all.

Internship Update: We were thrilled to discover that two seminarians were on our list to speak with during the annual meet-and-greet, where potential supervisors meet aspiring interns. The fact that we would be speaking with two great possibilities did not mean that we will have an Intern on staff later this year; but it did mean that we are regarded as a valuable (potential) partner by the seminary, where an intern can learn, grow, and contribute. Our conversations went well; and we will know more about our prospects after Easter. March is decision-making time; and, as it turns out, we've got lots to do to get ready for future possibilities.

When the Internship Committee met in February, we wanted to make sure that we weren't expecting too much of what an Intern might do for us. In fact, we wanted to make sure that our expectations had more to do with what we'd like an Intern to do with us. With that in mind, we formulated a mission statement that focused on "incorporating an Intern into our plan of action for improving our youth and family ministries." We want to improve the process of sharing leadership and the programming we offer. We want to create a calendar of events for the year; and we want to create better links of communication with our neighbors and our members.

That sounds like quite an ambitious plan, which it is; and there's one more thing. We want to involve the entire congregation in this plan. That's what we're working on now. We hope to host a series of workshops that will help us to listen better and plan effectively. You'll hear more about these workshops as our planning takes shape. Please keep us, our goals, a potential Intern, and Zion's future in your prayers as we wait to hear more about what God has in mind for us.

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

Caring Ministry: Cathy Harvey used the month of February to get herself ready for a great run at heading up our efforts to keep the Food Pantry & Clothing Closet operating at a high level of efficiency, with lots of love, and great camaraderie. Our former team leader, Jayne Schrader, has moved to leading from behind. Cathy's partner from Council, Beth Willis, has moved to North Carolina. Becky Aquilo has stepped back from the Clothing Closet. Change can sometimes look pretty frightening. But thank God it's Cathy Harvey who's helping us manage this change!

What grace under pressure, and what a great job she did! There have been so many changes the last few months that it seemed like our Pantry Crew was reduced to a few family members and friends that Cathy could lean on. But it turned out that that's what made it so much fun. When Shirley and Margaret first began to oversee see the work of the Food Pantry, that's how it was for them. They did it together, then with family, and friends, and finally a crew. They had a chance to grow comfortable with the system they formed; and gradually they incorporated helpers who learned to fit into their system.

Right now we need a few more volunteers to help with the service we offer on the 1st & 3rd Tuesdays of each month. That's March 5th and March 19th. If you'd like to join us, we can use your help. It's fun; it's easy; and you're invited! By the way, you can also help by donating items for our Food of the Month club. This month we are featuring peanut butter and jelly. We have a wagon in the Narthex for receiving these items if you want to donate them. Also, if you forgot to donate our Food of the Month for last month, which was breakfast cereal, that would be great, too. We appreciate your interest and support.

SOME CONFERENCE NEWS

Lenten Friday Fish Fries: Peace Lutheran Church will again host their famous fish fries on Fridays during Lent. All four Fridays in March – the 1st, 8th, 15th, and 22nd – will feature the good folks at Peace Lutheran offering dinner choices that include fried fish or shrimp, baked fish or chicken, or a fried fish and fried shrimp combo meal. Each meal also includes baked potato or hand-cut fries, with coleslaw, applesauce, a roll, dessert, and beverage. The price is $8.50 for adults, $5.50 for children under 12. A Kid's Hot Dog Deal is available for $3.50, which includes a hot dog, chips or fries, applesauce, dessert, and a beverage. Peace Lutheran Church is located at 3828 Cleveland Avenue SW. They will be open for service from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m., or call ahead for take-out: 330-484-4400.

Northeastern Ohio Synod to Elect Bishop: Bishop Elizabeth Eaton has reached the end of her first full term, and is eligible for re-election at this year's Synod Assembly. The process begins with Conference Gatherings on Sunday, March 3. Our Canton-Massillon Conference will meet at Zion Lutheran Church on Raff Road for a 3 p.m. meeting. We will pray together and participate in Bible study focused on the gifts needed to lead God's people, and the challenges leaders face. Then, an "ecclesiastical ballot" will be cast. Each voting member may submit the name of one clergy on the roster of the ELCA who he or she feels has the gifts needed by a bishop of the Northeastern Ohio Synod. The votes will be counted the next day and a list of ten potential nominees will be created. These names and information about each person will be sent to all voting members of the Synod Assembly, which is scheduled to occur the weekend of May 31—June 1 at the John S. Knight Convention Center in Akron.

NEWS OF SCHOLARSHIPS

NCMA Scholarship: The North Canton Ministerial Association, of which Zion is a member, offers a scholarship for graduating seniors heading off to college in the amount of $1,000.00. Graduating seniors are invited to write an essay that describes how their Christian faith has shaped their life. Zion has been blessed to have many younger members over the years who have lived their faith in remarkable ways; but we have not had many who have applied for this scholarship. Let's work on changing that pattern. Pastor Sherwindt would love to help those who would like to apply to think about ways of making the story of your faith-in-action even easier to tell. If you are interested in finding out more about this scholarship opportunity, just let the Pastor or the Church Office know.

Another Local Scholarship: We have also received news from Joan Cogan that there is a scholarship offered to a graduating senior planning to attend college who is both a Lutheran and a resident of Stark County. This $2,000.00 Scholarship is offered in memory of Joanne Flad and Nancy Grandjean Elliot by their families. As with the NCMA scholarship mentioned above, the selection committee is looking for an above average student, but not necessarily one with the highest grade point average. Applications are available at the Church Office.

For Your Information, just in case you have forgotten, our own congregation offers a $500.00 scholarship for any and all members who choose to attend any one of our Lutheran universities. Members from Zion who have attended Capital University have found that the Lutheran Foundation at Capital matches this $500 with $500 of their own, reducing tuition expenses by a total of $1,000 annually.

This year's Easter Program, Props for Easter, will be on Palm Sunday, March 24, at the 10:30 a.m. service only. In the program, the children will tell us about many of the familiar symbols that we see during the Easter season and just what they mean. We will have dress rehearsal on Saturday, March 23, 10:00 a.m. Rehearsal will be followed by a pizza party to celebrate all of the children's hard work.

We will practice during the month of March for half of the Sunday School hour, and the other half will be the normal Sunday School lesson. There are many roles available for our Easter program – speaking and non-speaking, as well as assisting with costumes and props. We are looking forward to another great performance offered by Zion's amazing kids!

This month we are also collecting Easter candy and small items that will fit into our plastic eggs for Zion's Sunday School Easter Egg Hunt on Easter (March 31st) during Sunday School. Children of all ages are invited to go on our Easter Egg Hunt. We typically hide over 500 eggs!

If you would like to donate any of these items, please leave them in the Church Office by Sunday, March 24th. Our older youth are again invited to help us fill the eggs, hide them on Easter Sunday at 8:30 a.m., and assist with the Easter Egg Hunt during Sunday School. We really appreciate everyone's support for this great activity that the children look forward to each year.

AN ACME RECEIPTS "THANK YOU" TO ALL

Thank you to everyone for bringing in your Acme receipts. We appreciate your support! Last year we received a check for just under $250, and this year we will be receiving a check for just over $250! These funds help with our youth ministries. Acme's Community Cash-Back program has ended for this school year and will start again in the fall. Thanks again for all of your support!

THE WOMEN OF ZION

This year's Bible study has focused on the theme Gathered by God, with Session 7 entitled Beneath Her Wings. Our theme verse is "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you were unwilling." (Luke 13:34) While the unfaithfulness of God's people is always a matter of concern, the inexhaustible supply of God's grace is more amazing still. In Luke 13, Jesus speaks of God as a mother hen; in Luke 15, he speaks of God as a loving Father. The point is the same: God always comes seeking out the lost, giving His love and the life of His Son that we might know true love and find true life. You are invited to join the Women of Zion on the third Tuesday of the month, which this month is March 19th, when coffee is served and the conversation begins at 9:30 a.m. in the Resource Center

Zion's Comfort Givers meet on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month, March 14 & 28, beginning at 9:30 a.m. in Luther Hall. You know the old saying, "Many hands make light work." So consider joining us as we enjoy coffee, some cookies and conversation, as well as being filled with the feeling of knowing that we are helping others in need through the good that we do. We can use the help, and you'll be happy you joined us.

Zion's Chancel Guild will host the third Sunday Evening Lenten Dinner on March 3rd. A nice meal is planned, and all of us are looking forward to another enjoyable Lenten service. The evening begins at 5:30 p.m., and then we're on our way home by 7:00 p.m. The Chancel Guild met in February to tend to our annual cleaning as we prepare for the arrival of Holy Week and Easter.

MEN OF ZION NEWS

The Men of Zion will need to spring into action as they look to host the fourth Sunday Evening Lenten Dinner on March 10th. The menu is taking shape; and it looks like pot-roast will be the main course, with real mashed red-skin potatoes, and great desserts. We'll need lots of help, and lots of diners to enjoy the fare, which is followed by an excellent service featuring Special Music and Lenten readings. That's dinner at 5:30 p.m., and worship at 6:15 p.m.

Following our Lenten dinner on March 10th, the Men of Zion need to start thinking about our 11th Annual Mother's Day Breakfast on May 12th; and then the Father's Day Weekend Prime Rib Dinner is back, which, as we announced last month, is set as a bicentennial affair with Zion United Church of Christ, placed on the calendar for Saturday, June 15th. Both congregations will receive 100 tickets to sell. We will be the hosts, and the chefs. Mark these dates on your calendar. You'll be glad you did; and so will we!

An Upcoming Event for the Women of Zion: The Canton-Massillon Cluster will celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the Women of the ELCA at their Spring Gathering at Faith Lutheran Church in Massillon on Wednesday, April 17th, with registration to begin at 9:00 a.m. The Bible Study Leader will be the Rev. Elaina Styblo, the Pastor at Faith. In-Kind Gifts to help Lutheran World Relief are invited. We are asking for 2 Personal Care Kits from each congregation. Also welcome are Baby Quilts for area agencies and Lap Robes for St. Luke residents. The Offering at worship will be divided between shipping costs for LWR and NEOSWO. Registration and lunch is $7.00. Please register by April 13th. Contact Betty Tracy with your interest.

THANK YOU'S & MORE

Pastor Sherwindt and Members of Zion,
Thank you for your beautiful service for Mom. Both Carol Ann and I were touched. Mom loved you and everyone at Zion. She was present on February 2nd at 2:00 p.m., I am sure. She was listening in and smiling. My heart is full, knowing that she was so loved at Zion.

Sincerely, Barb Semple and Carol Ann Huff

On Sunday, March 17th, the world remembers St. Patrick of Ireland with food and drink, songs and parades. The faithful everywhere remember this gifted saint; and we remember him with his words of prayer:

"I arise today with God's strength to steer me, God's might to uphold me, God's wisdom to guide me, God's hand to guard me, God's shield to protect me..."

"I arise today with Christ as my shield: Christ with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore me, Christ in the hearts of all who think of me, Christ in the mouth of all who speak of me."

OUR LENTEN JOURNEY

Our 40-day Journey with Dietrich Bonhoeffer began with Ash Wednesday, and will continue through March 30th, the Saturday between Good Friday and Easter. That one day contains the enormity of all that separates death from life, hope from despair, Cross from Resurrection. On the evening of Good Friday, Jesus was confirmed dead and buried in a tomb that was sealed with a great rock and guarded by soldiers representing the greatest power on earth. The powers and principalities are prepared for a cosmic battle; but Jesus descends to the dead to release souls held captive, and is then raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, that we might know true life, eternal life, God's life alive in Christ and shared with us. It seems surreal, I know, a story that belongs in imaginative fiction; but it's the truth, the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer was surrounded by the death, destruction, and darkness that Nazis brought to the world he knew and the church he loved in Germany. Nazis deemed Jews enemies of the Church and enemies of the State. Bonhoeffer said NO, and encouraged churches to stand together in resisting this convenient fiction. Nazis called for oaths of loyalty from pastors to the State. Bonhoeffer said NO, and pleaded with churches to resist the State's self-serving fiction. He heard God's call to stand with victims of injustice, to speak truth to power, to embrace the cost of discipleship, and pay the price, a martyr's death, in trusting God's grace above all else. On April 9, 1945, two weeks before Americans would liberate the concentration camp in which he was held, less than a month before Germany would surrender, Pastor Dietrich Bonhoeffer was stripped naked, led to the gallows, and hanged. Bonhoeffer believed his death was not the end, but a beginning. Which is the truth, and which the fiction?

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ANN SEMPLE

June 16, 1929 – January 9, 2013

Ann was a wonderfully active member of Zion, with commitments of involvement with the Food Pantry, the Prayer Chain, the Women of Zion, our various circles, with an active presence at worship, in the kitchen, whenever she was needed with Vacation Bible School, Christian Education, fellowship events, congregational meetings.... She was surely loved, and will be dearly missed by all – family, friends, neighbors, by the folks she served, and by those with whom she served here at Zion. She was a baker par excellence, with a generosity of spirit that made her signature cakes a mainstay of our Tuesday experience with the Food Pantry and Clothing Closet. It's true – I'll admit it, although Ann often suspected – that Marilyn hardly ever got to enjoy the delicious baked goods Ann took such delight in making and then sharing. But I enjoyed those excursions into baking heaven more than enough for the two of us!

I was there at Aultman Hospital when the staff began to break the news that they were caught in the middle between chronic conditions, which would only get worse, and for which they had no cure. Ann had been at death's door a number of years earlier; but from the moment of impact after her fall, she willed herself to and through recovery. This time no recovery was promised, nor even offered. It's hard to describe how that feels; but you who were with her know. It is devastating, and frightening, and unsettling, all at once, magnified by sudden fear and surprising panic at losing someone we love. But God took that moment and turned it into peace, which became perfect peace, and confidence that God is with us, and assurance that all will be well, with faith in God's presence, and hope in God's future.

Barb and Carol Ann saw this transformation, and Barb was right there when her Mom breathed her last and passed so peacefully from here to there, where there is the perfect peace that is ours with the amazing grace of the loving God who has given His all that we might know that He is with us always. Our Gospel Reading says it this way, "Let not your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many rooms. Were it not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am, there you may be also?" (John 14:1-3) This is the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. God has traversed the great distance separating heaven from earth. God has crossed over from eternity into time, from timeless joy into human struggle, taking upon Himself the flesh of our lives, shedding His blood by entering into our suffering, sharing our burdens, knowing absolutely everything about being human. There is nothing our Lord has not known ... for us. There is nothing our Lord has not endured ... for us. There is no longer any gap between our experience and God's love.

That's why we can use this day to celebrate Ann's life. Ann knew that God loved her. Her life wasn't easy; but her faith in God sustained her and strengthened her. She didn't look at life through rose-colored glasses; but there wasn't anywhere she looked, or any place she lived, any difficulty she faced, or any circumstance she was challenged to endure and overcome where God's presence couldn't be seen, His love discerned, and His will trusted. That's what I saw in Ann over the course of the last couple of months. It wasn't anything I hadn't seen before; but it was so clearly evident once it became clear that God had heard her prayer and had given her the time she needed to get ready and be ready. What a gracious ending to a life that was truly blessed; and what is more, this ending is only a beginning to a future that opens up into God's eternity. That's God's promise. That's the Good News of the Gospel. In our Father's heavenly house there are many rooms, and one has been reserved for Ann ... in Jesus' name. Amen
